To Our Friends and Patrons.

In 1897 the writer began to trace his own ancestral line for the sake of those who should come after him. As he proceeded, the circle widened until it included all the descendants of William Tanner of South Kingstown, R. I., now scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific. This has been a labor of love, and has brought him into correspondence with a large number of estimable people. These have courteously given him the information in their possession, which he gratefully acknowledges.

While it would be impossible to make mention of all of these, the writer desires to express his appreciation of the value of the Manuscript Genealogy compiled by George Thomas Tanner of his branch of this line, which his widow kindly placed at his disposal, and to Dr. Herbert Battles Tanner of Kaukauna, Wis., for encouragement and assistance in this undertaking, and to Maj. C. D. Parkhurst, U. S. A.. for his help in sundry ways. The writer has made free use of the Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island, by John Osborne Austin, from which, however, he is obliged to differ in some particulars. He also acknowledges his indebtedness to the painstaking work of Mr. Arnold, in his Vital Records of Rhode Island. The writer has made free use of the Historical Societies of Providence and Newport, and of the Town Records of the several towns of Rhode Island, and also of the counties of eastern New York, to each of which he hereby expresses his thanks for the courteous assistance afforded by those in charge. He is also greatly indebted to Secretary Upham and to Assistant Librarian Kingsbury of the Minnesota Historical Society. for their cheerful assistance in placing at his disposal the sources of information in that rich historical and genealogical collection.

It would be too much to assume that every source of information has been exhausted, or that the conclusions drawn are infallible. But the above will serve to show the extent of the writer's researches, and the great care he has taken to verify his results. Doubtless inaccuracies will be discovered. But the results are left to a generous public as a contribution to the genealogical history of one of the early Colonial Families of Rhode Island.

The Tanners in America.

HISTORICAL.

It is said that the Tanner name in England dates from the time of William the Conqueror.

The name appears in history in the time of Edward the Third (1312–1377). Their estates lay in the county of Cornwall; and later, the name appears in other parts of England, Wales and Ireland. At this date it is difficult, if not impossible, to ascertain to what branch of the Tanners in England the American Tanners belong. It is the opinion of the writer that they are English, and that the Tanners of Ireland and Wales are also of English origin. There are many Tanners in America from Switzerland. But it may be that these are also of English ancestry, having left England, as did many others, on account of religious and political troubles. One, at least, of the Tanners in the New York regiments in the Revolution was of Dutch or German ancestry. Amid this uncertainty, the only claim which will be made here is, that the Tanners are an old and respectable English family, with here and there an honored name, among which is that of Bishop Thomas Tanner, of the Diocese of St. David's in Wales, archeologist and writer, whose contributions are to be found in the Bodleian library at Oxford, England.

Among the early emigrants to Virginia, we find Daniel Tanner, aged forty, who came over in the ship "Sampson." In 1618, Josias Tanner, aged twenty-four, arrived; and in 1678, Elizabeth, daughter of Mary Tanner, also came to the colony.

In Deed Book C, 2 D, page 78, William and John Tanner, in 1686, made a conveyance of land in Philadelphia, Pa., to one Daniel Clark. William Tanner removed from what was known as the "Welsh Tract" in Pennsylvania, and settled in Dutchess county, N. Y., where, at one time, his descendants were quite numerous.

In 1725, Benjamin and John Tanner, of London, came over and settled at Jamaica, L. I. Some of their descendants are now in New York City and Philadelphia. Among these we find Benjamin Tanner, engraver, artist, etc., Philadelphia; Abraham Tanner, of New York city, shipping merchant;

Henry Schenck Tanner, geographer; John Tanner, M. D., L.L.D., writer in medicine; and Captain Charles B. Tanner, and his brother, Captain John B. Tanner, of Washington, D.C. [See "Our Little Family Record" by one of the members of this line.]

To the line of Virginia Tanners belongs Governor John R. Tanner, of Illinois. This is now an extensive branch of the family, and to this southern line we may, in all probability, refer John Tanner, whose captivity is related by Edwin James in his "Narrative of Tanner's Captivity Among the Ojibways." About 1780 or '90 a child was stolen by the Indians from a Kentucky family by the name of Tanner, and carried to the Hudson Bay country. He grew up there, married, and had children. The parents asked the government to make inquiry for him, and about 1820 Tanner was induced to come to Mackinaw. Here he was taught English and made use of as an interpreter and blacksmith for several years. James' "Narrative," it is said, is not always reliable, and when Tanner had it read to him he set out to kill Dr. James. But not finding him, he killed Henry R. Schoolcraft, and took to the woods in the dead of winter. Some bones were afterwards found by the side of his gun on a trail in the Saskatchewan valley, and it is supposed that he perished. His children lived in the woods all their lives, and he himself could never be induced to give up his wild life and return to his home in Kentucky.

The original of the following fac similes is in possession of Dr. H. B. Tanner, of Kaukauna, Wis., whose wife's grandfather, Col. Geo. Boyd, was United States Indian Agent at Mackinaw from 1818 to 1832, and knew Tanner.

James Tanner, a son of John Tanner, was sent to Boston in his boyhood, where he was educated under Unitarian influences. Afterwards he returned to Minnesota and came to the Chippewa reservation about 1857 or '58. In the Indian country he met Bishop Whipple, and connected himself with the Episcopal church, and about 1860 resided at St. Cloud, and died in Minnesota.

(See "Narrative of Tanner's Captivity Among the Ojibways," New York, 1830.)

To the line of William, who emigrated from the "Welsh Tract" in Pennsylvania, to Dutchess county, N. Y., belongs Col. Adolphus H. Tanner, soldier and congressman, late of Washington county, N. Y.

In 1663, Nicholas Tanner, of Swansea, Wales, settled in Swanzy, Mass., in that part now comprised in the town of Rehoboth. Nicholas Tanner was active in the Narragansett War.

I am Dr Sir, with great respect

P.S. Tanner was never detained against his will. he could have left the Islands at any time he chose — and so can his Children (by his other wife)

For an account of his services the reader is referred to the records of the colony of Plymouth, and to the colonial history of Rhode Island. In his will, on record in the town of Rehoboth, he names no Tanner heirs, and probably left no issue.

There are many other Tanners residing in the United States, as Dr. Tanner, who fasted for forty days, who have come recently and are respected citizens in their adopted country. None of these branches will be included in this genealogy.

There is also a genealogy extant, compiled by the Rev. Elias F. Tanner, entitled, "The Genealogy of the Descendants of Thomas Tanner, Sr., of Cornwall, Connecticut, Etc." This Thomas Tanner is said to have emigrated from Rhode Island, and his name, with that of his son William, is found on the tax roll of the town of Cornwall, Conn., in 1742. While it is the opinion of the writer that Thomas Tanner is a son of William Tanner who came to Rhode Island about 1682, his descendants will not be included in this genealogy. Among these is Rev. Edward Allan Tanner, D. D., late President of Illinois College, and his son, the Rev. Allan A. Tanner, of the Congregational Church. It is to be regretted that this genealogy is not more exhaustive. This work will contain only the descendants of William Tanner of North Kingstown, R. I., whom we assume to be the the oldest son of William Tanner of South Kingstown, R. I. The genealogical indications and indirect evidence all point to this conclusion.

William Tanner, of South Kingstown, Rhode Island, and his Descendants

The first mention of William Tanner in Rhode Island appears in the Fones Record, Vol. I. p. 70, as a witness to a deed of Frances Houlding, of Warwick. "I, Francis Houlding, doe consent to ye deed of sale, and forever will quitt clayme, etc. Witness my hand and seale ye 12th day of May, 1682."

The next mention of William Tanner is on the tax roll of the town of Rochester (Kingstown), under Governor Andrus, for 1687, where he is taxed for one pole, 1 1-2d.

In 1693, William Tanner bought a tract of land of one hundred acres, more or less, of Henry Hall of Westerly, weaver, the deed bearing date, July 4th, 1693. This deed is on record in the town of Westerly and was not recorded in South Kingstown until August 1st, 1728. In the deed he is said to be of Kingstown, "planter." This parcel of land lies on the east side of the river, about a mile below the village of Usquepaugh, and is described as follows:

"Lying westerly from John Sheldon's dwelling house as followeth: Beginning at the brook at John Sheldon's bounds and so up his bounds six score poles more or less to a white oak tree marked on three sides, and so from thence south and by west nearest six score poles to a walnut bush and from thence west nearest to the river to an ash tree marked on four sides, and so up stream to the furthest that I have under the hand and seal of Coianaquanto as appeareth more largely upon the general records of Rhode Island."

This "Hall Purchase" contained about two square miles, and "The house of John Sheldon appears to have been one of the first, if not the very first, built on this purchase, being referred to as a well known landmark in the oldest deeds." [Early history of Narragansett, by Judge E. R. Potter, p. 226.]

On this land, near the river, and hard by an inclosed burial place, may still be seen the graves of two or three generations, including the grave of William Tanner and two of his wives, marked as follows: The one at the left, W. T.; the first on the right, M. T.; the next, E. T. At the foot of these are four small graves. No dates or inscriptions are found on the simple, rude stones which mark the resting place of the founder of this line of Tanners in America.

In the records of the town of Westerly, R. I., in the will of Job Babcock, made March 26th, 1715, and approved April 7th, 1718, is the following:

"Item: I give unto my daughter Mary Tanner's heirs one shilling."

The occupation of Job Babcock is "miller."

The circumstantial evidence tends to show that this Mary Tanner was the wife of William Tanner the ancestor of the Rhode Island Tanners, not including the Newport Tanners.

In the same burial place, near the graves of William and his wives, and at the foot of the little graves referred to above, are two graves, the one at the right marked J. T. and the other S. T. These no doubt are the graves of John Tanner, son of William, who lived on the opposite side of the river, and Susannah, his second wife. At the foot of these last are two small graves, and at the right of these, a short space away, are two other little graves—seventeen altogether, and all unmarked with the exception of those named.

In his will, made November 27th, 1708, and approved July 13th, 1713, Henry Tibbits gives "to grandson William Tanner land purchased of Thomas Stanton of Stonington." There is no record of marriage of the daughter of Henry Tibbitts, nor does he mention her name in his will. Nor is there any mention of the father of this "grandson." The records are silent as to any Tanner relationship. The wife of Henry Tibbitts was Sarah, daughter of Robert Stanton and Avis his wife, of Newport, married December, 1661. Sarah died in 1708 and Tibbitts in 1713. In the absence of any records to the contrary and from the fact that Avis is a family name in the family of William Tanner of South Kingstown and William Tanner of North Kingstown, we shall assume that the latter, the "grandson" of Henry Tibbitts, was the only son of the former by his first wife, who was a daughter of Tibbitts. The genealogical evidence all points in this direction.

Henry Tibbitts appointed Constable in East Greenwich, 1678.
Henry Tibbitts and John Foanes buy land, 1671–1672.

There would seem to be two lines of Tanners in Rhode Island, of common parentage, at one generation remove, viz:—William Tanner of South Kingstown, who would seem to be the brother of the father of John and James Tanner of Newport, as the former in his will calls Francis Tanner of Hopkinton his kinsman, and makes him a bequest, and also Mary, the infant daughter of Isaac Tanner. This will was revoked after his second marriage.

A tradition has been preserved in the line of Job Tanner, son of John, who settled in Dutchess county, and later in Rensselaer county, N. Y., as follows: "Sometime in the seventeenth century a boy by the name of William Tanner was kidnapped in the streets of London, on his way home from school, with a Bible under his arm, and put on board a ship as a cabin boy, and taken to America, settling in Rhode Island, where he married and died. His first wife's name was Mary, and they had three sons, one of them named John."

It is pretty certain that William Tanner came to America in his youth, and the grain of truth which we find gives color to the story. The writer is inclined to connect his coming with the visit of Randall Houlding to England about 1678, under whose protection the young man may have come to the New World. It is now impossible to verify the tradition, or to decide from what part of England our ancestors came. One thing is certain, the early Tanners were Baptists, and, no doubt, came to Rhode Island on account of their religious principles.

The writer has a boyhood impression of hearing it said that our ancestor came over in the time of Cromwell's War. But this has no evidence to support it.

Quite as much to the point is the following, sent me by Mr. Charles H. Greene, of Alford, New York—a quotation from Ivimey's "History of the English Baptists," p, 526. "In 1693, there was an assembly at Bristol, on the 19th of the second month, called April, of the Elders, messengers and ministering Brethren of divers baptized Churches in England and Wales, to talk over the interests of the Baptist Churches in the west of England." The circular letter is signed, "Your brethren waiting for the consolation of Israel." "Signed by us in the name of the whole," William Tanner and seventeen others. These evidently were the preachers of the denomination then present. The churches composing this west riding conference were, Sudbury, Plymouth, Love, Southwick, Calne, Haycomb, Westbury, Melksham, Bridgewater, Taunton, Bristol, Bradford, Lanon, besides Baptist churches in six Welsh counties whose name or number is not given. To which of these churches William Tanner belonged we have no information.

The writer inclines to the opinion that our ancestor came from the west of England, and the above from Ivimey may give some future genealogist a clew whereby he may connect our ancestor with his English parentage.

We give below, the names of the children of William Tanner, the immigrant, of South Kingstown, gathered from old records. The order of birth is not known until we come to Francis (6). It seems highly probable that William of North Kingstown, R. I., was the first born, and Benjamin the next.

1 WILLIAM, who settled in North Kingstown, R. I., on land given him by his grandfather, Henry Tibbitts.

2 BENJAMIN, b. December 24th, 1692, in South Kingstown, who settled about 1734 or 1735 in West Greenwich, R. I., where some of his descendants are still to be found (1905), others in Pennsylvania, etc.

THOMAS, assumed to be a son who settled about 1730 in Litchfield county, Conn., and about 1740 in Cornwall of that county; he had three sons, William, Thomas and John. (For Thomas, see Genealogy of Thomas Tanner of Cornwall, Conn., by Rev. Elias F. Tanner, A. B., 1893.)

3 JOHN, who settled in Richmond, R. I., or Charlestown, from which Richmond was taken.

4 AVIS, who m. Thomas Barber April 18th, 1723; (See South Kingstown records.)

5 MARY, who m. Lawrence Willett of North Kingstown, R. I., yeoman. This name appears aslo as Vilet, Violett, Vilate, in various records; ch. a son Lawrence, who probably d. young, and daus., Mary (unmarried), Grace Brand and Thankful Clarke. (See Clarke genealogy).

6 FRANCIS, b. July 3rd, 1708, who settled in the present town of Hopkinton, where he bought 1,200 acres of land. His descendants are found in Rhode Island, New York and farther west.

7 NATHAN, b. February 20th, 1709-10, who also settled in Hopkinton, R. I. Some of his descendants are to be found in Rhode Island and in New York, etc.

8 ANNA, b. March 15th, 1712; no farther record.

9 REBECCA, b. July 2nd, 1714; m. Benjamin Brand, Westerly, R. I., which then included Hopkinton.

10 ELIZABETH, b. November 14th, 1717, who m. Benjamin Burdick.

11 ABIGAIL, b. October 17th, 1719; no further record known.

It appears that William Tanner 1st m., 1st, the dau. of Henry Tibbitts; 2nd, Mary Babcock, dau. of Job Babcock of Westerly; 3rd, Elizabeth Cottrill. To the 1st we assign William of North Kingstown; to the 2nd, Benjamin, Thomas, John, Avis and Mary; to the 3rd, the remaining ch.

The genealogy of William Tanner only, of North Kingstown, R. I., will be given in the following pages.

William Tanner and Elizabeth Reynolds, both of North Kingstown, were married March, 1729. William Tanner was admitted freeman North Kingstown 1723–4.

The following is an abstract of his will, made June 13th, 1757: Names, son William; grandson Samuel Tanner, son of my son Benjamin Tanner deceased; son Palmer; son Francis, not of age; wife Elizabeth; daughter Hannah Cha(dsey); daughter Mary Reynolds; daughter Deborah Fowler; daughter Elizabeth Tanner; son Henry; daughter Avis Tanner.

It appears from the record that the children of William Tanner of North Kingstown were:

Abel Tanner, son to Benjamin Tanner deceased, December 10th, 1754, appears before the council, Exeter, and chooses his grandfather, William Tanner, for guardian.

1760, Abel Tanner desires letters of administration on the estate of Samuel Tanner his brother, he having been absent three years and upwards.

1761, January 13th, Samuel Tanner, late of Exeter, having been three years absent and unheard of, he having left goods, etc., in said town, the town council of Exeter appoint Abel Tanner administrator on the same.

Henry Tibbitts, wife Sarah, daughter of Robert and Avis Stanton: Will made November 27th, 1708, proved July 13th, 1713, gives "to grandson William Tanner, land purchased of Thomas Stanton, of Stonington, etc."

The description of the land as deeded by Henry Tibbitts to his grandson William Tanner, shows that the land lay in North Kingstown, and was the land owned by his descendants until within a few years. "One Hundred and Fifty Acres, bounded by George Tibbitts, Arthur Aylesworth, John Briggs, * * * it being the s * * * given to said Tanner By the last Will and estament of me, to have and to hold, &c., * * * after the decease of me the said Henry Tibbitts the deceased * * * * * bbitts, to him the said William Tanner his heirs, And the said H * * * with the said William Tanner * * * times forever hereafter the Decease of me the said Hen * * * * te of my wife Sarah Tibbitts.

Henry (H) T * * * *"

The date is only in part legible, January * * * * * * one thousand * * * * * en, which would appear to be some year after the will was made and before the death of Tibbitts, ending in the letters "en."

While the writer thus far finds no record of any relationship between William Tanner of North Kingstown and William Tanner of South Kingstown, yet, after carefully weighing the evidence, he is satisfied that William of North Kingstown was the oldest son of William of South Kingstown by an unnamed daughter of Henry Tibbitts.

William Tanner of North Kingstown was a member of the town council from 1746 to 1752.

"The place where he settled, still known (1900) as the 'old Tanner farm,' is about one mile from Potowomut Factory, on both sides of the 'Cross River,' in a southeasterly direction, about three miles from East Greenwich and about five miles north of the village of Wickford. This land remained in the Tanner family until a few years ago." [George Thomas Tanner.]

William Tanner of Exeter sells to Francis Tanner, 1757, land, impowered by the will of the late * * * Tanner of North Kingstown, bounded, etc.

* * * * * sells to Palmer Tanner, 1757, 23 acres, etc.

In the 31st year of His Majesty's reign, William Tanner sells to Palmer Tanner land in North Kingstown bounded easterly on land lately belonging to John Allen, North on land of Palmer Tanner, South in part by land of Palmer Tanner. This land belonged to William Tanner, deceased. Deliverance, wife of William, of Exeter, gives up her thirds.

The following signature appears,

William * * * * *

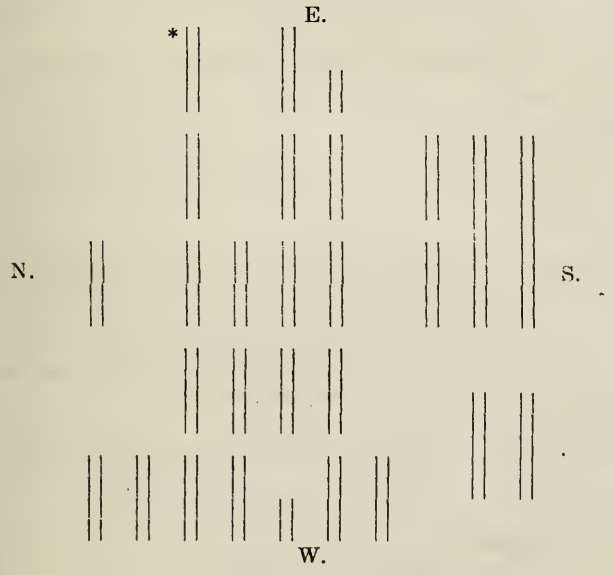
Note.—In "Additions and Corrections," second column, Mr. Austin says in his Genealogical Dictionary, referring to the family of Henry Tibbitts; "VIII. Hannah m. William Tanner; ch. I. William, 1712; II. Benjamin, etc." The reader is referred to what has been said in regard to the relationship of William Tanner to Henry Tibbitts. Mr. Austin has evidently confounded names. This is evident from the tenure of the inheritance. It is more likely that the wife of William Tanner of North Kingstown was Hannah Palmer. There is a presumption in favor of this from the fact that the name Palmer is a distinctive name in this line for several generations. George Palmer, Henry Tibbitts and others unite in a petition relating to the title to land purchased of the Indians. The name shows, at least, some intimate connections with the Palmer family.

THIRD GENERATION.

William Tanner of Exeter, R. I.

Plan of the original burial ground of the Tanners of North Kingstown, on the farm owned (1901) by Robert and Clark Arnold, on a slight elevation near a creek, and not far from the old sawmill, of which traces of the dam are still visible. The head-stones have no inscriptions. It is, no doubt, here that William and his family are buried.



*The last person buried is Lucy Tanner Dawley the most North Eastern grave.

LYDIA.

DELIVERANCE.

Nathaniel Rose was in the Revolution.

The following is a description of the land of William Tanner (9).

William Tanner, Jr., yeoman of North Kingstown, buys land in Exeter, 183 acres, in 1747, bounded west by William Eldred, north by Jos. Rathbun, east by Capt. John Eldred, south on the Ten Rod highway, very likely the land, or near the land, owned (1905) by Gardner Barber.

The following appears in the records of the town of Exeter, Rhode Island.

"Birth of the children of William Tanner, Jr., by Susannah, his wife: William Tanner was born August 15th, 1752."

William Tanner, Jr., admitted freeman, 1756 or 1757, one record says April 20th, 1757.

From the town records it appears that he was a resident of Exeter, Feb. 12th, 1765. That the name of his wife at this time was Brigit; that he had a son designated as William Tanner, 3d, "eldest son of William Tanner, Jr.," a daughter Amey. He is named in his father's will, made in 1778. No further record appears, and the writer is unable to gather any family tradition of him.

The following is taken from the Exeter town records(R. I.) June 11th, 1768. "Whereas William Tanner, husband to one of the daughters of the said Marcy Hill, deceased, appeared in this same council and desired that he might have a letter of administration on the personal estate of the above named Marcy Hill, deceased; it is therefore,

"Ordered, That the above named William Tanner have a letter of administration on all the personal estate of the above said Marcy Hill, deceased, he giving such bond, etc."

It would seem that William Tanner, Sr., of Exeter, was married three times. The following appears in the Exeter town records: March 1736–7, "William Tanner, Jr., and Martha his wife (North Kingstown) sell to Benjamin Tanner of the said town, 20 acres of land, and dwelling house, bounded west by John Briggs and Philip Aylesworth, north by my father, etc."

1737–8, William Tanner sells land in North Kingstown, no signature of wife.

February 10th, 1742, James Sweet, of North Kingstown, in his will names a daughter, "Ann Tanner."

William Tanner and Deliverance sell land 1757, soon after the death of his father, William Tanner, of North Kingstown.

From the above, and the intimate relation William Tanner of Exeter bore to the Sweets, it would appear that the 2d wife of William was Ann Sweet.

1756, William Tanner is one to make an inventory on the estate of Henry Sweet, deceased.

March 24th, 1761, William Tanner, Deliverance Tanner and Griffin Sweet witness the will of Samuel Sweet.

It is further likely that the 3d wife was Deliverance Briggs, though the writer has no absolute proof. Probabilities point to this.

A Deliverance Briggs, dau. of John Briggs and Sarah his wife, is named in the will of Briggs, made April 21st, 1746, and proved February 8th, 1747. Deliverance was probably over eighteen, as a legacy is given her outright; but to a niece when she comes of eighteen.

Daniel, brother of John, also names in his will made Sept. 9th, 1727, proved March 28th, 1730, wife Lydia, ch. Daniel, Benjamin, Hannah, Martha, Deliverance, Mercy.

The former would be the more likely, and the proximity of the families leads the writer to think that the 3d wife of William Tanner, Sr., of Exeter, was Deliverance Briggs, dau. of John Briggs, of North Kingstown.

Note relative to Henry Tibbitts, grandfather of William Tanner.

Henry Tibbitts, admitted freeman of Acquidnessitt, 1668.

Henry Tibbitts, John Foanes, and others present petition relating to lands in the Narragansett country, purchased by them in 1671–2, asking for a ratification of said purchase. Appointed constable in 1678.

Henry Tipets, Geo. Palmer, John Shelldin, Arthur Aylesworth, Nicholas Gardner and others petition the King. [For further information concerning Henry Tibbitts, see R. I. colonial records, and early R. I. history.]

William Tanner's Will

(Original in possession of Dr. H. B. Tanner, Kaukauna, Wis.)

"In the name of God, Amen. I, William Tanner, of Stephentown, in the county of Albany, in the state of New York, being weak in body but of sound memory, blessed be God, do, this twenty-seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord the one thousand seven hundred and seventy-eighth, make this my last will and testament in manner following: That is to say, first, I give to my son William Tanner, two dollars, to be paid two years after my decease, he having received his portion before. Also I give to my son Thos. Tanner one dollar, to be given two years after my decease. Also I give to my sons Palmer Tanner and Benjamin Tanner, their heirs and assigns forever, all that messuage or tennament situate in Stephentown, wherein I now live, together with all my blacksmith tools, equally to be divided between them. Also I give to my sons Abel Tanner and Nathan Tanner, one hundred and fifty dollars, to be paid two years after my decease. Also I give to my daughters Hannah Braudway and Amy Brown and Martha Tanner and Susannah Watson and Avis Bennet and Thankful Rose and Mary Rose, each of them one dollar, to be paid in two years after my decease, they having had their portion before. Also I give to my daughter Lydia and Deliverance Tanner fifty dollars each, to be paid in two years after my decease. Also I give to my loving wife Deliverance all of my household goods, to remain hers for her use and the use of the family during her life or their residence here. I also order my sons Palmer Tanner and Benjamin Tanner to keep three cows for the use of the family. I also give to my son Benjamin Tanner one mare colt. Also all the rest and residue of my goods and chattels and personal estate whatsoever, I give to my son Palmer Tanner and my said wife, Deliverance Tanner, and I make and ordain my son Palmer and my said wife joint executors of this my will, and intrust for the intents and purposes--" * * * *

("The rest is illegible; one witness is Benjamin Shelden; signed by William Tanner 'his mark'—owing to weakness of body. He died June 30th, following this date." [1778.]

The writer is indebted to Mrs. Amasa E. Tifft, a descendant of Thankful Tanner, daughter of William Tanner of Exeter, R. I. and Stephentown, N. Y., (9), for the following record of Wyatt and Thankful Tanner Rose. Mrs. Tifft is a descendant of the Rhode Island Tiffts, and resides in Ithaca, N. Y., 526 Stewart Avenue.

May 11th, 1743, Benjamin Tanner, tailor, buys in Exeter 70 acres of land; admitted freeman June 7th, 1743. January 10th, 1743-4, Abigail, wife of Benjamin Tanner, appears in council and acknowledges the will of her late husband, deceased, made December, 1743, in which he names his two sons, Samuel and Abel, and wife Abigail; and in case of the death of his sons, then his two sisters, Hannah Tanner and Mary Tanner, are to enjoy their bequests, and George Tibbitts and Thomas Hill of North Kingstown are executors. December 10th, 1754, Abel Tanner, son to Benjamin, deceased, appears before the town council of Exeter and chooses his grandfather William, for guardian. Abel, therefore, must have been 14 years of age, or past.

In 1760, Abel appears before the council and desires letters of administration on the estate of Samuel Tanner his brother, Samuel having been absent three years and upwards. In 1761, the council appointed Abel administrator. The inventory, amounting to £629, 13s., was presented by Abel.

No further account appears of Abel, and very likely he removed to the West, or as then called "up country."

DORCAS, b. ————, d. unmarried.

Henry Tanner's will, dated September 27th, 1802, probated in West Greenwich, R. I., November 7th, 1808, names wife Sarah; son Samuel Tanner's children; son Thomas Tanner; daughter Elizabeth Matteson; daughter Mary Tanner; daughter Dorcas Tanner; son William Tanner, who is appointed executor.

The date of the death of Dorcas, wife of Henry, does not appear. She signs away her right of dowry January 25th, 1794. All the children must have been by first wife. Henry Tanner and wife Sarah deed land to son Thomas, July 18th, 1802. Tradition says that 2nd wife was Sarah Rice.

The estate of Dorcas Tanner, spinster, of West Greenwich, was administered March 27th, 1837; and estate of Mary Tanner, spinster, West Greenwich, had administrator appointed June 8th, 1837.

Henry Tanner of North Kingstown buys 68 acres of land on Mill River, in West Greenwich, February 11th, 1755.

In the records of Otsego county, N. Y., it appears that William Aylesworth sells land to Francis Tanner in the town of Burlington, N. Y., January 30th, 1809; also in 1811 to Stephen and Isaac Colgrove. In 1829 one Francis Tanner and Lucina his wife, sell land in Burlington, and in 1845 Francis Tanner alone conveys land in Butternuts.

Probably these conveyances are by the same party, or by father and son; but no further record of Francis Tanner of North Kingstown appears.

30 THOMAS, b. November 16th, 1772.

November 16th, 1771, Thomas Tanner, Sr., of Exeter, leases land of Mary Searing of Newport for 18 years; he to build a house and to set out 100 apple trees; to clear 3 acres each year. Land bounded north by the Ten Rod Road; west by land of Job Tripp; south in part by Job Rathbun.

Thomas Tanner was related to the Perrys and Whitfords, was a man of property and held office. It is said that he favored the cause of England; but his name appears as a private on the pay roll of the Continental Army, Capt. James (Lewis?) Company, Col. Christopher Lippitt's Second Regiment of Foot, Rhode Island Brigade, Newport, June 5th, 1776. [See receipts His. Soc. Providence, R. I.] The census of 1774, Exeter, gives his family one male and one female above sixteen, and three females (evidently an error for three males) under sixteen, and one Indian; total, six.

He sells land in Exeter, R. I., 1794; removed to Herkimer county N. Y., and settled in the town of Norway, where he bought 600 acres of land, giving each son a quarter section.

Pasco Whitford [See Austin's Gen. Dictionary] was among the early settlers of Newport, Kingstown and East Greenwich and is assumed as the father of Nicholas and Pasco, and the ancestor of the Whitfords of Exeter and West Greenwich.

Nicholas had a quarter of a right of land in tract of 30,000 acres that afterwards became West Greenwich, R. I. Pasco, Jr., had a son John.

(The Whitford family record, in part, has been compiled by Dr. O. B. Whitford, Butte, Montana.)

Mr. O. M. Tanner of Aurora, Ill., to whom the writer is indebted for information, says that he had never heard his father speak of any of the children of Palmer (16) except Amy and Rowland, both of whom were unmarried and lived with their mother at Brockport, N. Y. He says he has a distinct remembrance of his father and mother making a visit to his grandmother, who was very aged, about 1863.

It is conjectured that the others may have died young, as we find no further record and no branches which trace their origin to these.

The name of Palmor Tanner appears in the Revolutionary records in the Fourth Albany, Col. William Van Rensselaer.

Mr. Jeremiah Tanner, late of Providence, R. I., grandson of Nathan (21) and Bertheno (Briggs) Tanner, gives from memory the following account of the children of Nathan (21) which differs a little from the record made by George Thomas Tanner. After naming William and Palmer, he says: "Patience, the oldest m., Samuel B. Allen; had 2 ch., a son who d. at sea and a dau. Martha (49) m. Nathaniel Carpenter. Mary (52) m. Benjamin Maker. James went to sea and nothing more is known of him. Nathan, Jr., (48) was of a roving disposition; m. Anstis Case, a sister of Unis Case, wife of Palmer (47); went to sea, was in the navy and the War of 1812; not known when or where he d.; left 2 ch., a son, drowned, age of 3, and a dau. Harriet, who never m."

Palmer, PALMER, WILLIAM, WILLIAM, son of Palmer (11) and Mary (Hill) Tanner, b. about 1740 in North Kingstown, R. I.; m. February 22nd, 1761, Phebe Wood, dau. of William Wood; res. of Palmer, Scituate, R. I.

In the absence of written records we have assumed Palmer (22) to be the son of Palmer (11). The genealogical indications point in this direction. Had the North Kingstown records not been injured by fire the connection might have been found. There can be no question that Palmer (22) belongs to the North Kingstown branch, and we find no other place to assign him, as the negative evidence excludes him from every other family.

The census of 1774 shows that he had six children; 3 males under 16, and 3 females under 16. It may be that other children were born later.

Children as gathered from various records—

53 ABEL, b ———.

54 BENJAMIN S., b. ———.

55 WILLIAM, b. September 17th, 1761, in Scituate, R. I.

HANNAH, b.———, m. April 19th, 1778, Daniel Hopkins of Scituate.

SARAH, b.———, m. September 12th, 1794, by Christopher Wescott, Justice, to Jabez Bowen, Jr., of Foster.

ESTHER, (probably) b. March ———, 1767, d. April 19th, 1852, in Gloucester, R. I.; unmarried. (See Gloucester town records.)

Palmer purchased land in Scituate in 1790. Administrator appointed on the estate of Palmer Tanner of Scituate, September 25th, 1813.

Palmer and wife Phebe, Abel and wife Abigail, sell land in Scituate, March 25th, 1806. Palmer and Benjamin sell land April 29th, 1806.

Palmer Tanner was in the French and Indian Colonial War, as appears by the following receipts copied from the original in the State Capitol, Providence, R. I.

From an account of Capt. Ebenezer Jencks, Deceased, Wages paid to ye 10th day of January, 1759, (No. 16) Palmer Tanner.

An acc't of cash paid Capt. Ebenezer Jenck's Company, 1757, Providence, December 27th, 1757 (No. 62). April 8th, 1758. Palmer Tanner.

An acc't of cash paid officers and soldiers belonging to ye Capt. Buckitt and Eddey's Company as per their acc't. Dated, Providence, December 26th, 1759 (No. 55). Palmer Tanner.

(From Military Returns.)

In "Revolutionary defences in Rhode Island" by Edward Field, among the list of men in Captain Joseph Knight's company, Scituate, April 20th, 1775, the day after the battle of Lexington, is one Furmer Tanner, (p. 11). No doubt this is an error for Palmer Tanner of Scituate. (See Beaman's his. of Scituate, p. 43.) Also Military Papers, Vol. 4, No. 632, under list of names for Scituate. Knight's His. has the name spelled "Palmer." We may add that this name is sometimes found 'Palmor."

On his tombstone is the inscription: "He emigrated to this town from Connecticut (?) in 1764, was one of the first settlers of the soil where he now lies; married three wives, and had twelve children, all of whom died before him."

Benjamin, PALMER, WILLIAM, WILLIAM, son of Palmer (11) and Mary (Hill) Tanner, b. ——— m. November 2nd, 1765, in North Kingstown, R. I.

Sarah Aylesworth, dau. of Arthur Aylesworth of North Kingstown, R. I., m. by Caleb Hill, Justice. Will made July 12th, 1792; proved September 21st, 1792 (d. between these dates); probably the Benjamin "draughted" private reported August 2nd, 1778.

Children named in will as follows:—
56 PALMER.
57 BENJAMIN.
HENRY, d. at sea, single, about 1796.
HANNAH.
MARY.
SUSANNAH.

RUTH.
LYDIA.
SARAH.
ANNA.
ELIZABETH.
LUCY.

In the birth record in North Kingstown the names of the children of Benjamin and Sarah are not legible; but the following dates are distinct, the number of names in the will being the same as the number of dates. In one or two cases, as Benjamin, the family record is definite.

HANNAH, b. February 28th, 1766.

The will of Benjamin (23) names wife Sarah, eldest son Palmer, youngest son Henry, son Benjamin, daughter Hannah Sweet wife of Sylvester Sweet, Jr., daughter May Wightman wife of Rhodes Wightman, daughter Susannah Austin wife of Henry Austin, daughters Ruth Tanner, Lydia Tanner, Sarah Tanner; youngest daughters, Anna, Elizabeth, Lucy.

A family record gives the following as daughters of Benjamin: Lydia, Sally, Nancy, Hannah, Susan, Betsey, Polly, Avis, Lucy.

Mary m. Rhodes Wightman and removed to Stephentown, N. Y., September 20th, 1792; he receipts for the portion of his wife (estate of Benjamin Tanner) and also for Lydia and Sarah Tanner. At the same time, Henry Austin and Sylvester Sweet each receipts for the portion of his wife.

Susannah m. Henry Austin, a brother of Margaret, wife of Palmer.

Lydia m. Levi Johnson, and settled in East Greenwich, January 26th, 1794; a daughter m. ——— Place.

Sarah (Sally) m. Gould Gardner of Exeter.

Nancy m. William C. Potter of "Little Rest" or Kingston Hill, South Kingstown.

Betsey m. William Pearse (or Pierce), July 3rd, 1803, of North Kingstown, R. I.

Avis(?) m. and went West.

Lucy m. John Dawley of Quidnesett Neck and had five ch. Her second husband was a Mr. Carpenter.

Ruth m. Ezekiel M. Gardner.

In 1792, when the will was made, Ruth, Lydia, Sarah, Anna, Elizabeth and Lucy are named as unmarried.

"Benjamin was born on the old farm in a house near 'the old saw mill,' and married Sarah Aylesworth, who lived on an adjoining farm south. The wife died with the old-fashioned leprosy. Benjamin was a Tory, and it is said used to go with his son Benjamin down to Allen's Harbor by night to carry provisions to the British, who would come ashore at a given signal."

"One very foggy morning, when they had been belated for some reason, they were discovered by some of the neighbors on their way home."

"On another occasion, he took his son Palmer and went down to the shore to deliver products. As they were late in returning it was with great difficulty that they reached home without being discovered."

The above seems hardly compatible with the fact that he was "draughted" for service at Newport as private and reported for duty August 2nd, 1778. That he was held in high esteem by his fellow-townsmen and was loyal to his country appears in the fact that he was a member of the town council from 1788 to 1792, in North Kingstown, and his descendants are entitled to this honor of their ancestor. Smith's Civil and Military History of Rhode Island gives Benjamin Tanner, Lieutenant, 1767, in a North Kingstown company.

George Thomas Tanner, in a family record compiled by him, says that "Benjamin Tanner who married Sarah Ann Aylesworth, had a brother Nathan, born in North Kingstown about 1738 (not known whom he married), had four sons and one daughter that we know of, viz: William, Palmer, James, Nathan, Jr., and Martha." [See 21.] "William, born probably about 1760 ('80), had two sons, Timothy and Henry. Palmer, born about 1762, probably settled in Coventry or Warwick; was called 'Deacon' Palmer Tanner; had six children, viz: Abel, Jeremiah, James, Palmer, Jr., Mary Ann, and John." [See 46 and 47.]

"Of James, born about 1764, nothing is known. Of Nathan, Jr., there is no record; born probably about 1766." [21 and remarks.]

"Martha, born about 1768, married Nathaniel Carpenter of North Kingstown about 1786. To them were born five sons and three daughters—Daniel E., Samuel, Christopher, Nathan Tanner, John, Harriet W., Eliza Ann and Catherine." [Record of Geo. Thomas Tanner.]

The above record is given here as that of a painstaking man who had opportunity of consulting aged people living on the grounds. But a hundred years, or nearly, had intervened, and he does not seem to have consulted old town records. In the light of these and of family records of the related branches, we find it necessary to differ from his conclusions, as will appear in the case of William, son of Nathan, who died January 15th, 1826, aged 45, bringing his birth in 1780 or 81, instead of 1760.

The same writer, in an unpublished genealogy of his branch of the North Kingstown Tanners, says: "Benjamin Tanner of North Kingstown married Sarah Ann Aylesworth, whose father lived on an adjoining farm. His family consisted of three sons and nine daughters—Benjamin, Palmer, Henry, Lydia, Sally, Nancy, Hannah, Susan, Betsey, Polly, Avis, Lucy. The names vary somewhat from those in the will of Benjamin and Sarah. But the points of agreement show that it is the same family.

The will of Sarah was made November 10th, 1801, and her estate settled February 2nd, 1834. She names son Palmer; daughter ———na Austin, wife of Henry Austin;———, wife of Silvester Sweet; daughter Ruth, wife of Ezekiel M. Gardner; daughter Lydia Johnson, wife of Levi Johnson; daughter Sarah Gardner, wife of Gould Gardner; two daughters, ——— Potter wife of William Potter, and Elizabeth Tanner; daughter Lucy Tanner; three said younger daughters, Anna Potter, Elizabeth Tanner, and Lucy Tanner; son Benjamin.

The tradition relating to Nathan, brother of Benjamin (23), may be accepted as correct. At least the writer has no data contradictory to this theory. The fact that Nathan is not mentioned as receipting for a portion of his father's estate would not be conclusive against this, as he may have received his portion before the death of his father; besides, the records of North Kingstown were so injured by fire as to be in many parts illegible.

To Palmer, son of William (2) of North Kingstown, we must assign the Palmer of Scituate, whose name places him in the North Kingstown branch, the name Palmer at that early day being a family name among them. Benjamin (3), son of William (2) of North Kingstown, does not name in his will, made in 1743, any son Palmer; and Palmer, son of William (3) of Exeter, removed to New York just before the Revolution. For these reasons, after careful consideration, the writer's conviction is, that Palmer Tanner of Scituate was the son of Palmer, of William of North Kingstown. All known facts are in harmony with this, and there is nothing to contradict it. Records were imperfect, in some instances all the children but one being found on the town records.

(Samuel, who died single.)

After his death, his widow m. March 17th, 1808, John Lewis of Coventry, R. I., and died in 1837.

Samuel Tanner, Sr., was corporal in Capt. Gorton's company, Col. Lippitt's regiment, September 1st, 1776, to January 17th, 1777. [See Cowell's "Spirit of '76 in R. I.," p. 56.]

This regiment served one year and one additional month voluntarily; it was taken into Continental pay in May, 1776. The regiment was first quartered on the island of Rhode Island, marched westward in September, 1776, and joined Washington at New York, after the battle of Long Island; was assembled with other troops at Crosswick's, New Jersey, and formed part of the brigade under Col. Daniel Hitchcock, and volunteered for an additional month to complete the campaign.

Capt. Thomas Gorton was brother to the father of Mary (Gorton) Tanner.

See will of Benjamin Gorton, in which he speaks of "dau. Mary Tanner and son-in-law Samuel Tanner."

Samuel Tanner was a farmer and blacksmith, and owned a considerable tract of land in West Greenwich.

The following receipt appears in the U. S. collection, Providence Historical Society (No. 22).

A similar receipt appears given by Gardiner Tanner, son of Samuel. Smith's Civil and Military History gives Samuel Tanner as captain of the 3rd company in West Greenwich in 1788, 1789 and 1790.

"1793 Senior Class Regiment, Kent county, 2nd Major, Samuel Tanner." "1794, 2nd Regiment, Kent county, Lt. Col. Commandant, Samuel Tanner." (Smith's Civ. and Mil. Hist.)

The dates in the North Kingstown records are partially defaced by fire. The small figures at the right are supplied from family records and are doubtless correct. In the record of the family, Henry appears as Harry Higgins, died in boyhood; shot by accident.

Palmer was born in "the old sawmill house' near the Cross river, in North Kingstown, and settled on the old homestead, where he built him a house about a hundred rods southeast from where the old one stood, and it is said he hammered out all the nails with his own hands in the old blacksmith-shop, which stood near the ''sawmill bridge."

He was tall and straight, and lived and died in the house built mostly with his own hands. In middle life he desired to be baptized, but for some reason the Church did not accept him. He was buried on the farm where he was born, not in the old burial-ground, but a few rods south of the house, where his wife and some of his children were already buried. [In possession (1901) of Clark and Robert Arnold.]

Note.—Tradition has it that Christopher Tanner served in the War of 1812, and one of his descendants, Major C. D. Parkhurst, is a life member of the Society of the War of 1812 on his record established by tradition and the affidavit of a daughter of Christopher, Mary Gorton Dyer of Cranston, R. I.

Sarah Williams, wife of Christopher Tanner, was a direct descendant from Roger Williams. She was born in Cranston. She never remarried, but died a widow, and is buried in Pocasset cemetery, which is on the farm of the "Dyer Nursery."

Some of this information was copied by the writer from tombstone inscriptions; and he is also indebted for much of it to Major C. D. Parkhurst, U. S. A.

Lorenzo Dow Tanner was a man of deep religious convictions. Early in life he joined the Methodist church, studied for the ministry, and after passing his examinations was sent out upon the circuit, and preached three sermons a day, each weekday and Sabbath. He was considered one of the rising young lights of the conference to which he belonged. Ever true to his convictions of duty, he denounced slavery from pulpit and platform. Bishops and elders tried to convince him that he ought to confine himself to what they considered the "Gospel," to which he replied, "I have not so learned Christ."

He finally withdrew from the church, feeling that it was wrong to fellowship those who communed with slaveholders. Many fugitives from bondage found a night's shelter, food and clothing, or money, beneath his roof on their way to Canada.

He was in correspondence with Wendall Phillips and Lloyd Garrison. He was always true to his convictions of duty, and the soul of honor in his dealings with men.

"Eli Tanner was one of the pioneer settlers of Lancaster, Erie county. Born in Rhode Island, he drove to this state (N. Y.) behind a team of oxen. He bought a farm and built a house a few miles northeast of Bowmansville, when Indians roved about the country trading, and he often housed them over night as self-invited guests.

"Mr. Tanner was of an inventive turn of mind, and devised several useful farming and household implements, including one of the earliest types of washing-machines. He also introduced the sugar-cane plant into Erie county, growing it on his own farm. In his declining years he divided his time between reading and target practice, both of which were favorite pastimes of his." [From Buffalo Express.]

Henry Tanner (163) is the author of a book called "The Alton Trials," being a "History of the Rise and Progress of the Alton Riots, Culminating in the Death of Rev. Elijah P. Lovejoy, November 7th, 1837." Printed at Buffalo, N. Y., by James D. Warren, 1878. Written for the Buffalo Historical Society.

Henry Tanner with others was indicted for riot committed on the night of November 7th, 1837, while engaged in defending a printing-press from an attack made on it by a mob, resulting in the murder by this mob, of Rev. Mr. Lovejoy—the owner of the printing-press and an advocate of anti-slavery.

For a full account, see the pamphlet referred to, deposited in the Buffalo Historical Society; also other works. The event created a profound sensation at the time, and Mr. Lovejoy was named "The Martyr."

"Abel Tanner of Mystic, father of Abel Palmer Tanner, Esq., of New London, Connecticut, died at Mystic, March 21st, 1899, in his 95th year. He was widely known in that part of the country where he had lived so many years. He was a man of strong convictions, and during the Civil War and prior to the conflict he was a very pronounced anti-slavery man. He possessed a natural talent for speaking, and during those stirring days made many telling addresses. Later he became interested in the universal peace movement and his voice was frequently heard at the annual meetings at the grove in Mystic.

"In former years he had been in the employ of the Standard Machine Company, until by reason of age he was unable to attend to business. Notwithstanding he had long survived the allotted span of human life, he remained cheerful and always had a kind word for those with whom he came in contact." [Norwich Courier.]

Jeremiah Tanner was born on Prudence Island, and is a descendant by his mother's line from William Unis, one of the Waldenses who emigrated from Guernsey, in France, early in the 18th century.

In his earlier life he was the valued friend of Mr. Samuel Foster. From 1837 to 1841 he held a responsible position with the Lonsdale Company at Lonsdale, and afterwards with the Warren Manufacturing Company at Warren. During the later years of his life he resided in Providence with his granddaughter, Mrs. Horton. He was well known in the city, and his habit was to sit on the steps of the Arcade, where he could be seen any pleasant day of summer. He was strictly temperate and regular in his habits, was never sick, and at the last passed away as the candle dies in its socket, and "he was not."

His brother Abel was a pronounced abolitionist prior to the Civil War, and was frequently associated with Wendell Phillips in that cause.

"Albert S. Tanner removed to Norwich, N. Y., in 1840. He was then a builder, and formed a partnership with Abraham Thomas. The firm constructed the old Norwich Academy, and many other buildings. In 1846 he removed to a farm in Morrisville, Madison county, where he acquired a competence, and later returned to Norwich, where he spent the remainder of his days.

"Mr. Tanner had many of the attributes of the gentleman of the old school. He was courteous, affable, a good talker and an agreeable companion to young and old. Strictly honest and honorable in all his transactions, his character was above reproach. His religious life was even and consistent. He was one of the oldest members of the Norwich Baptist Church in length of service and years. He was a good citizen and took an active interest in the welfare of the nation." [Local paper.]

His ministry was first with the Protestant Methodist Church; but in 1862, he came from Genesee county, N. Y., to Michigan and joined the Michigan Conference, of which he was a devoted and useful member.

During the last eight years of his life he lived in Big Rapids, and though in failing health preached as opportunity offered. His preaching was of the evangelistic kind, and many were converted under his ministry. He possessed much enthusiasm in his work, and served many churches acceptably. The source of most of his success was the excellencies of his manhood, integrity and uprightness, and he died respected by all who knew him. He was buried at Paw Paw, Mich.

"A lovely Christian woman, beloved and esteemed by all who knew her. She fell a victim to consumption early in her youth, and two years later her husband followed her.

"It was about the time of their marriage, or before, that the 'Rochester Knockings' were prevailing in the neighborhood, and Mary Ann proved to be a powerful 'medium,' insomuch that before she left school, unless she had her Bible with her, the 'spirits' would cause the seats to be torn up by main force without any one touching them. Indeed, the 'spirits' haunted her day and night, wherever she was; but she rejected them as evil spirits, and when she had her Bible with her she ceased to be troubled by them. At length disease accomplished its fell work. Just before her spirit took its departure from her body, she pointed upward and said, 'Listen! Don't you hear the angels sing? Oh, hear the angels sing!' She had a glimpse of the heavenly city just before entering in. So young, so beautiful, so good—she lived only to love and to be loved, leaving behind a large circle of friends, yet not sorrowing as without hope." [George Thomas Tanner.]
